

TUESDAY AFTERNOON FILM SERIES

Join Rev. Paul each Tuesday afternoon for a five-week series of award-winning international films.

Showtime is at 2pm, to be followed by a discussion period. Everyone is welcome. Please sign up.

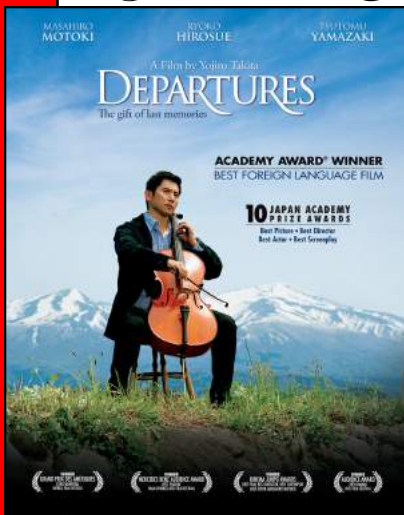

JAN 8

To Live. (China, 1994)

A classic by renowned director Zihang Yimou, this is the story of a wealthy family who become peasants during the tumult of the 40s to the 70s.

JAN 15

January 15: Departures. (Japan, 1994)

An unemployed cellist returns home to take a job in "departures," which is not in the travel industry as first thought. Academy Award for best Foreign Film.

JAN 22

Omar. (Palestine, 2013)

A tense, gripping tale about real and imagined betrayal in the Occupied Territories.

JAN 29

Everlasting Moments (Sweden, 2008)

A true story about a young woman who's life is transformed when she wins a camera in a lottery during a time of war and poverty.

FEB 5

The Trial of Viviane Amsalem (Israel, 2015)

An amazing - and infuriating - account of a woman's quest to obtain a divorce.

